

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: 11/27/2023
Arts Center Task Force
info@artscentertaskforce.com
509-530-1276

ARTS CENTER TASK FORCE HIRES NEW OPERATIONS DIRECTOR AND OUTREACH COORDINATOR

RICHLAND, Wash. (Nov 2023) - Arts Center Task Force has welcomed new staff into the office including Amber Maiden as the new Operations Director and Riley Osborn, Development & Outreach Coordinator.

"We are excited to have Amber and Riley join our team and bring such remarkable skills to our organization- ", said ACTF Board Chair, Steven Wiley.

Maiden joins ACTF with six years of experience in the nonprofit sector in marketing, communications, program management, and event coordination. She graduated from Eastern Washington University with a bachelor's degree in communications with an emphasis in Public Relations.

Her career has included positions with Visit Tri-Cities, Trios Health, Tri-Cities Water Follies, City of Kennewick Parks and Recreation, and Historic Downtown Kennewick Partnership. She has helped plan and organize some of the Tri-Cities' largest events including 2023's Tri-Cities Water Follies, TBEX, Kennewick Farmers Market, and Hometown Holiday Parade.

Maiden brings a passion for the arts to her new role. While working in tourism, she saw how large and active the performing and visual arts community is in the Tri-Cities. She looks forward to working with the community and helping further the goal of ACTF of building and operating a performing arts center in the Tri-Cities.

Originating from Spokane, WA., Riley Osborn is a dedicated marketing professional with a deep-seated passion for community advocacy. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Journalism with an emphasis in public relations from Eastern Washington University.

Osborn's professional background spans marketing, public relations, and community engagement, with a track record of orchestrating successful nonprofit special events and nurturing donor relationships. She was involved with Joya Child and Family Development's annual Spring Gala and silent auction, which raised funding to help infants and toddlers with developmental delays. She also served on the committee for YWCA of Spokane Women of Achievement event that generating support for domestic violence victims and their children.

Since moving to the Tri-Cities in 2022, Osborn's focus has shifted towards active participation in the community. She looks forward to using her communication and public relations skills to help build the Mid-Columbia Performing Arts Center.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: 11/27/2023
Arts Center Task Force
info@artscentertaskforce.com
509-530-1276

About Arts Center Task Force

Arts Center Task Force is a 501c3 nonprofit that will build and operate the Mid-Columbia Performing Arts Center; a vibrant, state-of-the-art facility for artistic expression and innovation. ACTF strives to enhance cultural access and quality of life for the community, promote economic vitality, and support local arts organizations to collaborate, grow, and thrive.

###